Together we give thanks ...

We have much to be thankful for! It was a joy to worship as one congregation together at One Service Sunday last week. We give thanks for the ministry of the Men's Choir at Pt Elliot this weekend. As I write this I hear the excitement, joy and laughter of hundreds of children at the Colin Buchanan concert – and we give thanks. We give thanks for the youth festival here on Saturday.

Outside my window is a tree blossoming in the prayer garden – it reminds me of the new season and new life. Its colour and vibrancy brings joy to us as we park our cars and as we walk past. It is easy to go through our day and not notice the people and things around us that give us joy. The surprises in our day. The smile from a stranger. An act of kindness. The beauty in the garden.

We give thanks for God's love for each of us, for all people. Love that is so deep, so wide, so high - we cannot understand it, nor comprehend it. But we are thankful and together we give thanks.

Blessings, Lynne

SUPPORT FOR INDIGENOUS LITERACY PROGRAMME

Our church has raised $3,025 for the Indigenous Literacy Programme for children with 2 events this year, a concert and a dinner. Thank you to all who helped organise these events and to all who supported them. We invite members and connect groups to join us by organizing fundraising events such as morning teas, cake stalls, Sunday lunches, BBQs, high teas or garden parties to raise funds for this important cause. We are planning two major fundraising events each year.

Drinking Fountain Commissioning

Sunday 10 November 10.30am @AWUC as part of Shared Morning Tea.

Thank you to all who have worked on the Prayer Garden over recent months – removing the fence, rejuvenating the garden, and installing the drinking fountain and the fire pit. This area looks amazing - your ministry & care is appreciated!

#weservetogether

Its time to start thinking about our Community Fair.

- Get those seedlings potted ready for the Plant Stall. See Cathy Harris if you would like to donate or help out on the stall
- David Bailey will be organising the Book Stall. He's looking for books, DVDs, CDs, bring to church office. No magazines, encyclopedias, or videos.
- Feeling crafty? See Judy Johnston if you have crafted items to donate or if you can help out on the stall.
- If you're happy to bake or donate food for Produce Stall please let Kylie Roberts know
- Got muscles? We'll be needing some brawn for set up and pack down.

Please contact Louise W at the office or Belinda W if you can help out in any other way.

Drinking fountain in prayer garden

The new drinking fountain is now installed in the prayer garden! Thanks to a generous grant from Federal Government – Volunteer Grants (Community Grants Hub), we've been able to source a drinking fountain that is a bubbler, able to fill water bottles, dog drinking bowl and a tap. Thanks to those who sourced and installed this. This will be beneficial for all those who volunteer in the garden as well as a great way to be good neighbours in our community.
