Together ...

I love the sense of 'together' we have as a church.

Together we serve, together we worship, and together we care. Together we meet, read, pray, give, welcome all, and connect with God, each other and the community around us. Together we care about the environment, discuss big questions about life and faith, stand up for the vulnerable, commit to reconciliation, and commit to human dignity and social justice for all. And so much more ...

Today we are aware of yet another horrific incident of domestic violence in a Brisbane suburban street. There are so many affected by this one incident and so many incidents around our country, every single week. Together we cannot be silent on this and we commit to reducing the rate of domestic and family violence.

Today (Thursday) is the annual international World Day of Social Justice. This day recognises the need to promote social justice including tackling issues such as poverty, exclusion, gender inequality, unemployment, human rights and social protections.

We are encouraged to truly care for each other and all others. Together we care in and with God's love. and hope.

Blessings, Lynne

Induction for 'normalisation' of ministry & share lunch today

A short induction to mark the 'normalisation' of Lynne's ministry will be conducted in all 3 services today (morning services by Rev Diane Bury, Chairperson of Presbytery B), together with a share lunch with musical items to celebrate together after the 11am service.

All welcome. #togetherwelunch

KCO (21-22 March 2020) is 4 weeks away!

Please register NOW and let me know when you have registered so that food and transportation can be arranged. We would be grateful for any donations to help cover costs for this event . Donations can either be left as a retiring offering in the bowl by the door as you leave or handed to myself, Lynne, or church office. Thank you in advance!!

Any questions please don't hesitate to ask me.

Lorraine, KCO Group Coordinator (AWUC)
