CHURCH NEWS – 2 August 2020

*Kurna miyurna, Kurna yarta, ngadlu tampinhi.
 (We recognise Kurna people and their land.)*

Who will feed the hungry?

The feeding of the 5000 is easy to gloss over – some of us have read this so many times before. It is just a story. It doesn't impact us... Jesus said to the disciples "You give them something to eat." Jesus took the little that was offered and made it sufficient to feed people in abundance. It was a challenge for the disciples and it remains a challenge for us today. Who is Jesus calling us to feed? How are we sharing and feeding hope in today's world? May these words challenge us this week in our everyday lives.

Blessings, Lynne

Seeking volunteers

We are looking for volunteers in the following areas:

- Bread – to be on a roster for pick up & packing – Wed nights
- Bread – deliveries on Thurs afternoon, 1 more person for roster
- Coffee (coffee machine) – after 11am services
- mainly music – volunteers for roster to set up (~30 mins Thurs 8.30am)
- Bus drivers – 2 more for Sunday am roster when bus resumes
- Garden – help with weeding

If you are able to help – please contact the office or speak to Lynne.

Thank you to all those who are stepping into roles following the opening of the church building – your ministry and care is appreciated!

If you would like to receive the Church News by email, please contact the office or go to the website and subscribe under 'Newsletter subscription'.
